[The CA Awards Are Back and Better Than Ever]

[LARGO, MARYLAND, August] — Prince George's County Community Television (CTV) will be honoring public access television producers by holding the 16th Community Access Awards, previously known as the Community Access Magic, or CAM Awards.

Everyone is welcome to attend the Community Access (CA) Awards that will be held from 6:30-9 PM on October 17, 2019, at the Newton White Mansion to honor the producers, volunteers and interns that dedicate themselves to public access productions. Seats are limited and tickets are first come, first serve. Tickets are $50 and can be reserved online.

This year, the CA Awards is continuing its support of Prince George's County youth that want to pursue a career in broadcasting by awarding academic scholarships. The CA Awards is a way to acknowledge the efforts made by the hard-working producers, volunteers and interns for the sake of public access television. Those honored are among a small group of people that have an impact, both seen and unseen, on the lives of many citizens in the Washington Metro Area.

This event will be celebrating a night of excellence on behalf of the works done for community access television. SANDRA F. PEACHES, CTV Executive Director, said that the CA Awards "Celebrates and recognizes community access producers, along with presenting deserving students with scholarships. Come out and enjoy as we celebrate excellence."
